

Short Biography

JEN MARIK BETHAM-LANG serves as a New Zealand military chaplain, community church pastor, Messianic Jewish congregational leader, conjoint lecturer for Avondale College, and she holds a doctorate in the study of the Jewish Roots of Christianity from St. Petersburg Theological Seminary. Dr. Betham-Lang seeks to eradicate anti-semitism in Christianity while igniting the passion of Christians for their exciting and festive biblical roots through education around Jewish holidays and biblical feasts.

Long Biography

Jen Marik Betham-Lang serves as a New Zealand military chaplain, community church pastor, Messianic Jewish congregational leader, and a conjoint lecturer for Avondale College. She seeks to eradicate anti-semitism in Christianity while igniting the passion of Christians for their exciting and festive biblical roots through education around Jewish holidays and biblical feasts. She has studied at California Baptist University, Claremont School of Theology, Southern Adventist University, The Jewish Learning Institute, and the University of St. Andrews, Scotland, where she published her dissertation, Messianic Jewish Aliyah: The Significance and Challenge of Modern Israeli Immigration for the Messianic Jew. She holds a doctorate in the study of the Jewish Roots of Christianity (St. Petersburg Theological Seminary). She is the mother of three and wife of Jewish ethicist, theologian, military chaplain, civilian pastor and financial guru, Roger Lang.

See more about her ministry: www.bnai-tikkun.org.nz and www.familyministry.co.nz